

THE RENAISSANCE BEGINS...

A NEW CHAPTER FOR THE EXCELSIOR BRANCH LIBRARY

WE DID IT!

The Excelsior Branch Library, the first of twenty-four San Francisco branch libraries that will be renovated or rebuilt by the end of this decade, is renewed and improved and about to be open for business.

LET'S CELEBRATE!

Join the San Francisco Public Library, the Excelsior Library Campaign Committee, and Friends of the San Francisco Public Library for a special celebration of this revitalized branch library. We'll have commemorative gifts, prizes, live music, food & drink, clowns and much, much more. And don't miss the sidewalk celebration parade starting at 12:30 p.m.!

Saturday, July 9, 2005

1:00 p.m. to 3:00 p.m.

Excelsior Branch Library

4200 Mission Street (at Cotter)

Learn more: www.friendssfpl.org

Plus more special events each day at the branch from July 9th to July 16th. Call 415-557-4353 or visit www.sfpl.org for more information.

San Francisco Public Library