

DEL CORAZON

DR. LOCO'S

ROCKIN' JALAPEÑO BAND

The Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum (MFACM) was founded with a strong commitment to public education. Festival programs are scheduled at sites and venues around the greater Chicagoland area to accommodate attendance by diverse audiences. This year's Festival programming also offers an array of excellent, special public education opportunities that reach out to the Museum's broader community.

El Centro Museo de Bellas Artes Mexicanas fue fundado con el compromiso de educar al público. Los programas del festival se presentarán en distintos centros e instituciones de Chicago con el fin de facilitar la visita del público. El festival de este año presenta una serie de oportunidades en programas abiertos a la comunidad y al público en general.

friday, may 5, 7 pm	saturday, may 6, 8 pm
viernes, mayo 5, 7 pm	sábado, mayo 6, 8 pm
at the Olympic Theatre 6134 W. Cermak Road	at the Coronet Theatre 817 Chicago Evanston
$15 general $12 students/seniors, $10 members

CHICANO
MUSIC
(BILINGUAL)

Doctor Loco's Rockin' Jalapeño Band bring their eclectic mix of Mexican, Tejano, Chicano "movimiento music" to Chicago to celebrate the Cinco de Mayo weekend! One of the West Coast's hottest high energy bands, the Jalapeño's dance-friendly, horn driven canciones are the leading exponents of "Chicano World Music." Dr. Loco, José Cuellar, (a Ph.D. in anthropology and the head of La Raza Studies at San Francisco State University), describes his music in the following way: "We like to play something that's spirited to move people's hearts and consciousness." The Jalapeños will be performing music from their just released Flying Fish Records CD "Puro Party".

Dr. Loco's appearance in Chicago is made possible by Flying Fish Records.
Saturday's concert sponsored by Opano Mexico Young Mexican Professional group.

Cinco de Mayo Celebrations!

La Dr. Loco's Rockin' Jalapeño Band nos trae su sabrosa mezcla de música mexicana, tejana, y del "movimiento" chicano a Chicago para celebrar el fin de semana del Cinco de Mayo. La banda del Dr. Loco es una de las más populares y energéticas de la costa oeste. Por su música bailable y sus canciones, esta banda es aclamada como líder del "Chicano World Music." Dr. Loco, José Cuéllar, (quien tiene un doctorado en antropología y es director de estudios de La Raza en la universidad estatal de San Francisco), afirma que "nos gusta tocar aquello que llegue a los corazones de la gente." Los Jalapeños tocarán canciones de su último CD lanzado por Flying Fish Records titulado "Puro Party".

OCTAVIO PAZ

Mexico's Legendary Writer & 1990 Nobel Prize Laureate

reading from his works in a special night of poetry

Poetry Reading

Rubloff Aud., Art Institute of Chicago, April 26, 1995, 7:00 pm

Benefit Dinner - Homage to Octavio Paz

Palmer House Hilton, April 27, 1995, 7:00 pm

Homage to Octavio Paz: Five Generations of Mexican Poetry

Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum, (MFAACM) April 28, 1995, 7:00 pm

HORACIO FRANCO CAPELLA CERVANTINA

World renowned musician and conductor

brings his internationally acclaimed choir to Chicago!

Pockefeller Chapel, University of Chicago

May 11, 7:00 PM

Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum, (MFAACM)

May 12, 7:00 PM

EDUCATIONAL

LITERARY PANEL

A special panel presentation by three of the visiting Mexican Poets takes place at 2:00 pm on Saturday, April 29 at the Mexican Fine Arts Center Museum. This program is free to the public and is co-presented by Fe de Erratas literary magazine.

Una mesa redonda por tres de los poetas mexicanos de visita en Chicago se llevará a cabo a las 2:00 pm el sábado 29 de abril en el Centro Museo de Bellas Artes Mexicanas. Este programa es gratuito y está co-patrocinado por la revista Fe de Erratas.

DR. LOCO LECTURES

Dr. Loco (a.k.a. Jose Cuellar, Ph.D.) of Dr. Loco's Rockin' Jalapeño Band, a noted speaker and advocate for continued education will visit students in selected schools in Pilsen and Little Village. Dr. Loco delivers a message of education and respect of one's own cultural heritage.

Dr. Loco (conocido como José Cuellar, Ph.D.), de la banda Dr. Loco's Rockin' Jalapeño Band, visitará varias escuelas públicas de Pilsen y la Villita. La personalidad magnética de Dr. Loco les comunica a los estudiantes la necesidad de permanecer en la escuela y conocer a fondo su legado cultural.

MUSEUM WORKSHOP

Dr. Loco will conduct an afternoon workshop on the roots of his band's Chicano world music style at 2:00 pm, Saturday, May 6 at the Museum.

Dr. Loco dirigirá un taller basado en las raíces de su estilo musical. Sábado 6 de mayo a las 2:00 pm en el museo.

FAMILY CONCERT

The internationally acclaimed choir, Capella Cervantina will present a very special free family concert at Saint Paul's Church, 2127 West 22nd Place at 6:00 p.m. on Saturday, May 13.

El internacionalmente reconocido coro Capella Cervantina dará un concierto gratuito en la iglesia de San Pablo, 2127 W. 22nd Place, a las 6:00 pm el sábado 13 de mayo.

FESTIVAL

DR. LOCO'S ROCKIN' JALAPEÑO BAND

One of the West Coast's leading High Energy Bands!
Two Nights only!

Special Cinco de Mayo concert!

Olympic Theater, May 5, 7:00 PM

Coronet Theater, May 6, 8:00 PM

HIGHLIGHTS

PARTICIPATING ARTISTS ARTISTAS PARTICIPANTES

Sna Jtz'ibajom- Teatro Lo'il Maxil
Gregory Nava
Octavio Paz
Eduardo Lizalde
Antonio Deltoro
Verónica Volkow
Aurelio Asiain
Luis Ignacio Helguera
Dr. Loco's Rockin' Jalapeño Band
Horacio Franco/Capella Cervantina
Antares
Malintzi/Rosete Aranda
Sergio Arau
Lalo López
Esteban Zul
Cuerdas Clásicas
Mexican Folkloric Dance Co. of Chicago
Sones de México

teatro performance cine danza

taller música conferencia literatura

